Description:

For a very long time, from the 11th century until the beginning of World War II, Warsaw used to be considered as the capital of Jewish culture in Europe. We offer you a special city tour dedicated to sites related to Jewish history in Warsaw.

During the tour you will see the old Jewish district, Nozyk synagogue and Kirkut – the old Jewish cemetery. You will visit Jewish Ghetto – the center of Jewish culture before World War II, where you will see the remains of a former vibrant city area, like Zamenhoff, Mila and Nalewki streets. You will not miss such important sites as Umschlag Platz and the Ghetto Heroes Monument.
